

Dear sirs,

We propose you to become an exclusive dealer of AdBlue emulators in your region and partner with FixElectro operating in the market since 2010.

In addition to multiple recommendations from our contractors worldwide we offer you unique terms with a chance to earn tens of percent from every sold emulator.

Key advantages of partnering with us include:

- Cooperation with the founder of the company developing AdBlue emulators;
- Flexible discount system;
- Short delivery terms;
- Reservation of goods in the warehouse and assistance in shipment management;
- Possibility of developing an emulator for the customer's vehicles;
- Technical and organizational support;
- Informational support, consulting, assistance in customer service.

Looking forward to beneficial cooperation.

Sincerely,
Oleg Vorotnikov
